Iron and Coal.

On this subject the Sacramento Bee has been known for a long time, that no is richer in iron than California. In county there are inexhaustible beds of pure ore; in El Dorado, less than forty from this city, it may be obtained on the face in large quantities so pure that been made available for use at a blacksmith's forge. But it will not pay haul it six miles to the railroad, and here and reload it for San Francisco. Mount Diablo coal mines have already ferred a great blessing upon the peop this coast, and the next great boon will manufacture of iron. If iron ore cou found in that mountain by the side of the we might hope at an early day to see furnace. We do not despair of such consummation. But our brethren acro Sierras tell us that they have iron an close together. The Salt Lake VEDET serts that such is the case near that city it calls the attention of the builders Pacific Railroad and others to the facili the making of rails and spikes for that prise. It looks far enough into the fut see a net-work of iron bands, coverin terior of the continent, made of the iro that abounds in that region. And it re the more at this fact, from the almost impossibility of constructing and keepin repair even one road without a manufa in the center of the great basin. The River Reveille, speaking of the subject,

"Iron ore and coal are not only four Utah, but also exist in great quantiti western Nevada. The existence of a su quality of iron ore is known throughou vada, but it is only in the Walker river try that it is found in proximity to mi coal. In that region, although the fact not appear to be generally known, the iron ore of the world is found in quan scarcely, if at all, surpassed by the iron tains of Missouri. The simplest kin iron manufactured, such as rails, casting bar iron, will be used in enormous quan and undoubtedly a manufacturing com could at once enter into contracts that justify and pay for the erection of fur and rolling mills, and leave no chance o The iron manufacture will at no dista become one of the greatest industries Nevada and Utah, and is a subject wor the consideration of our Legislature. manufacture has made the wealth of the State of Pennsylvania, is the foundat the greatness and power of England, an given importance to several countries when the facilities for the production o in Nevada are known and appreciated, i become one of the chief industries and sources of wealth in the State."

Kansas Items.

The Wyandott Gazette says that the structure for the bridge at the mouth Kaw has arrived, and is being placed the stone-work, commencing at this end abutment on the south side of the river quite ready, but will soon be, so as delay much, if any, in erecting the structure.

The Emporia News says that a report in such a shape that hardly admits of a of its truth, that Judge H. B. Elliott, for of Neosho Rapids, of that county, was near his store, in Cherokee Nation, a few ago. He moved his store from Neosho to Cherokee Nation something over a yea We heard nothing as to who committe foul deed.

Mr. Isaac Young has left at the office Leavenworth Conservative for examin two specimens of the cornelian, a sel stone, a variety of chalcedony, of a dee red. The specimens resemble petrifac a great extent, are tolerably hard and ceptible of a very fine polish. The cor is often used for seals. The pieces found in Leavenworth county, and a signed for exhibition at the Paris Fai year. One of the specimens as nearly r bles a petrified oyster as one oyster rese another.

The Lawrence Tribune of recent dat that a Mr. Bergman, of Marysville, arri that city the previous Thursday morn marry Miss Holstein, a lady to whom h been engaged for some time. Upon ar at the depot, he heard that the lady was and that her funeral ceremonies were moment being performed at the C Church. He had not learned of her sic and came expecting to find a bride bloom of health, and a partner for many years in the person of his betrothed.

A DUEL was fought near Bowling Kentucky, on Monday, the 19th ult., be John H. Grasscup and John Blair, both Confederate officers. On arriving at pointed place the ground was paced o the duelists took their positions, the was given, and both fired simultane Both shots took effect, but neither of th ties were mortally wounded. Grass ceived only a slight scratch in his righ but Blair was more seriously wounde ball entering his left breast and comi near the shoulder. The wounding parties was serious enough to bring their better senses, and they shook hand their wounds dressed by the attendi geon, and parted good friends. It was a South Carolina woman.

THE White Cloud Chief says: H. lowies is elected to the Legislature in worth. How he ever carried that through is more than we can tell. many of his party, unable to spell his voted for an independent candidate. only way in which printers can sel name, is by taking a dozen letters at from a box of "pi." No matter what ters or how arranged, they will alway his name, provided the first one is P.

Daily Union Vidette

Local and Miscellaneous.

The Vidette is the [illegible] Territory. Its extensive circulation in [illegible] Utah, [illegible] Idaho, [illegible] Montana and Colorado Territories, renders it the most desirable medium for advertising in these four Territories.

[illegible] Brevet Major S. B. Hoyt and [illegible] J. Marshall, of the 13th United States Infantry, arrived here a few days since. They have just returned from the recruiting [illegible], and are en route to join their regiment stationed at or near Fort Benton.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Governor Weller will this evening, at Independence Hall, delver a continuation of his lecture of last Wednesday. The pleasant state of the weather [illegible] doubt, ensure a large attendance.

Look out for J. K. Sumner's large posters. Everybody will do well to read them over carefully before leaving them. 2t

[illegible] FROM THE WEST.

We learn from the Virginia Enterprise.

[illegible] San Francisco, October 30.

[illegible] Monday was recognized as a holiday generally in this city. The wholesale houses were closed, and most of the retail stores did no business. Religious worship and several festivals absorbed the attention of the people. A number of the churches were open, and many interesting sermons were preached to full and interested congregations. A grand regatta came off in Mission Bay yesterday, and was witnessed by thousands of people from Long Bridge. The first race was with single scull between the Columbia, rowed by Edwa. Nelson; the Coquette, rowed by James Po[illegible]; the Fort Hill Boy, rowed by H. Hussy; and the Tickler, rowed by [illegible] Reed. The race was won by the Coquette. The second race was with single boats, the same boats entering with different men, and was won by the Coquette. The third race was between the four oared boats Lafayette, Neptune and Young America, and was won by the Neptune by a hard struggle. The sailing of the America from this port in consequence of the accident to the [illegible] at San Francisco, been postponed until the 15th of December.

Thomas Newman, of the late firm of Newman Bros., is on trial in the County Court on an indictment for arson, charging him with having set fire to his store on Battery street, [illegible] three months ago. Most of the day was consumed in impanneling a jury.

The Secretary of the Treasury has appointed [illegible] M. Morrow, of this city, Inspector of Internal Revenue for the Third and Fifth collection districts of this State. John H. Houston, of Stockton, has been appointed Inspector of the Second and Fourth districts.

A party sent by Macondray & Co. to the scene of the wreck of the British ship Coya, have returned. They report that the ship [illegible] on the south side of Franklin Point, about three-quarters of a mile from where the schooner John Franklin was lost. The lower topmasts of the Coya are barely visible above the water, and the vessel appears to be slowly removing from the reef [illegible] it and the beach. Everything that has washed ashore from the ill-fated vessel has been appropriated by the wreckers who swarm around the scene, and are believed to have secured many articles of a private character. At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the bodies of Captain Paige, Dr. Rowden and Miss Lassittes, Mrs. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffreys and babe, Frank Bushby, James [illegible], Philip Simmons (boy), James Martin (seaman), and Thomas Smith (seaman), had been found and buried near the spot where the bodies from the schooner John [illegible] were interred. Mr. Brown, the only passenger saved, has been near the scene of the wreck constantly, and supervised the recovery of the bodies and their burial. The [illegible] is considerably injured and exhausted, but is expected to leave for San Francisco soon. The people of the vicinity have been kind and attentive to the sufferers.

[illegible] Gaston De Artois has been charged with piracy, on the complaint of a seaman of the name of Basco, and held in $5,000 bonds. The case is under investigation before Commissioner Sullivan this afternoon.
